Re: 14th Street Coalition, et al. v. MTA, et al.
18 Civ. 2925 (PAE)
Consent to Filing/Request for Additional Time to File Opposition

Dear Judge Engelmayer:

The plaintiffs in this case do not, as a matter of procedure, object to defendants Metropolitan Transportation Authority (“MTA”) and New York City Transit Authority (“NYCTA”) filing a “Corrected Affidavit.” We do think that all of the discussion is inappropriate on a Motion to Dismiss, which is supposed to be directed to the pleadings.

The MTA/NYCTA filing does create a significant addition to the record. We request, therefore, that we be given an additional week (until July 2, 2018) to file our opposition, and that the schedule for Reply Briefs be accordingly pushed back one week.

Thank you for your courtesy.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/

Arthur Z. Schwartz
